

Watery Wildlife

A few British mammals enjoy a semi-aquatic life, as happy in the water as they are on dry land. They are very good swimmers and make their homes in river banks.

Can you pick out the two water-loving species?

The answer can be found at the bottom of this page - upside down!

wildlife
watch

Pip says...
I don't like being cold and wet!

polecat

otter

harvest mouse

water vole

badger

Answer: Otter and Water Vole

'Pip the squirrel' and 'Pip the squirrel & friends' are registered trademarks of BWC Wildlife Productions Ltd, British Wildlife Centre, Newchapel, Lingfield, Surrey RH7 6LF
For more of Pip's fun activities visit: www.pipthesquirrel.co.uk

